2- Communication History

In the clients will see :

- * WhatsApp
- * Email
- * Calls
- * Meeting recording

3- AI Assistant

Each client profile should include an “AI Summary” button.

When clicked, the AI automatically analyzes the entire client record, including conversations, uploaded documents, meeting notes, emails, WhatsApp messages, and CRM activities, then provides a concise summary.

The AI Summary should include:

- * Client Objective
 - * What service the client is interested in.
 - * The client’s goals and expectations.
- * Missing Requirements
 - * Missing documents.
 - * Missing information.
 - * Pending actions required from the client.
- * Eligibility Assessment
 - * Estimated eligibility based on the available information.
 - * Potential concerns or risks.

 - * Request additional documents.
 - * Send payment link.
 - * Schedule a meeting.
 - * Prepare the application.
 - * Submit the application.
 - * Follow up after a specified period.

- * Priority Level

- *  High Priority

- *  Medium Priority

- *  Low Priority

- * Lead Temperature

- *  Hot Lead

- *  Warm Lead

- *  Cold Lead

- * Overall Case Progress

- * Percentage of completion (e.g., 35%, 60%, 90%).

- * Recommended Package

- * AI suggests the most suitable package based on the client's profile and requirements.

- * Estimated Success Probability (Internal Use Only)

- * AI provides an estimated likelihood of approval based on the available information, highlighting strengths and potential weaknesses.

- * This should be visible only to staff and never shown to clients.

4- Resubmission & Appeal Workflow

If the client's visa application is refused, the consultant should select one of the following actions:

Option 1: Resubmission

- * Client agrees to submit a new application.

- * New document checklist is generated automatically.

- * Consultant requests any updated or additional documents.

- * Case status changes to:

- * Resubmission in Progress

- * Once all updated documents are received:

- * Ready for Resubmission

- * After submission:

- * Resubmitted

- * System records:

- * Original submission date

- * Refusal date

- * Resubmission date

- * Reason for refusal

- * Changes made before resubmission

Option 2: Appeal

If the lawyer decides that an appeal is appropriate:

Case Status:

- * Appeal in Progress

System should record:

- * Appeal submission date

- * Appeal deadline

- * Lawyer assigned

- * Appeal documents

- * Government decision

Possible outcomes:

- * Appeal Approved

- * Appeal Refused

5- Refund Workflow

If the client is eligible under the company's Refund Policy:

System automatically shows:

- * Refund Eligible
- * Refund Under Review
- * Refund Approved
- * Refund Completed
- * Refund Rejected (with reason)

The system should also calculate the refund amount automatically according to your company policy.

6- Updated Lead Statuses

Add these statuses after Visa Refused:

- * Visa Refused
- * Resubmission in Progress
- * Ready for Resubmission
- * Resubmitted
- * Appeal in Progress

- * Appeal Approved
- * Appeal Refused
- * Refund Under Review
- * Refund Approved
- * Refund Completed
- * Case Closed

One more recommendation

Keep the same client ID and same case throughout the entire journey. Do not create a new lead or a new case for a resubmission. Instead, keep a Case History that records every application cycle:

- * Application #1 → Submitted → Refused
- * Application #2 → Resubmitted → Approved
- * (If needed) Application #3 → Appeal → Approved
